

Ladies and Gentlemen,

In relation to new regulations on personal data protection, we fulfil our duty of informing you about the way we process your data. The most important issues are explained below.

Should you have any questions, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

From Monday to Friday, 8:00-16:00.

e-mail: iod@nospr.org.pl

Correspondence address:

Narodowa Orkiestra Symfoniczna Polskiego Radia z siedzibą w Katowicach, Plac W.Kilara 1, 40-202 Katowice

Where do we have your data from?

We obtained your data from you. You gave us your data while signing up for our events during a phone call or on our website.

Who controls your data?

The controller of your data is the Polish National Radio Symphony Orchestra with registered offices in Katowice, at the address: Plac W.Kilara 1, 40-202 Katowice.

How do we use your data?

Your data will be used for marketing our products and services and, if you express (or have already expressed) your consent, also for market research (only to the extent you agree or have agreed for).

Since this information concerns personal data processing in relation to marketing, it is possible that we process your data for other purposes as well, e.g. to perform an agreement (should you enter or have entered into one) or to perform a legal obligation (e.g. to issue an invoice). Such processing will always be compliant with relevant laws and regulations and you will receive separate information pertaining to that processing.

How to withdraw your consent or to object?

You may withdraw any type of consent given to NOSPR in relation to processing of personal data at any time without suffering any negative consequences.

All you need to do is to send an email to: iod@nospr.org.pl or to send traditional mail to: Narodowa Orkiestra Symfoniczna Polskiego Radia z siedzibą w Katowicach, Plac W.Kilara 1, 40-202 Katowice. Your withdrawal of consent does not affect the legality of processing your data prior to the withdrawal, which means that the processing of your data by NOSPR remains legal until the moment you withdraw your consent.

How to contact our Data Protection Officer?

You can do it by sending an email to: iod@nospr.org.pl

On what basis will we process your personal data?

The basis for processing your personal data is NOSPR's legally justified interest, i.e. direct marketing of its products and services. In the case of other goals mentioned in this information, the basis for processing is your consent.

When and with whom may we share your data, and with whom will we certainly not share them?

Should you express such consent, we will share your data with our partners, with whom NOSPR cooperates (“NOSPR partners”), so that they are able to use it for market research.

We will not transfer your data to third countries (outside the European Economic Area).

What can you do with the personal data you give us?

You may demand that NOSPR give you access to, amend, delete, or limit the processing of your data. We may also, should you demand that, move your data to a different data controller. You may also object to your data being processed for the purposes of marketing NOSPR’s own products or services.

How long will we store your data?

Data processed on the basis of your consent will be processed until you withdraw the consent.

Data processed on the basis of the controller’s legally justified interest (i.e. marketing of NOSPR’s own products and services) will be processed until you object.

Where can you complain about NOSPR’s processing of your data?

Complaints should be addressed to the supervising authority, which is the Personal Data Protection Office, postal address: Urząd Ochrony Danych Osobowych, ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 Warszawa; tel. 22 531 03 00; fax. 22 531 03 01; email: kancelaria@giodo.gov.pl ; website: www.giodo.gov.pl ; working hours of the Office: 8:00-16:00.

Additionally, you may always send a complaint to NOSPR’s Data Protection Officer - iod@nospr.org.pl

You are welcome to read our detailed Privacy policy.
